

GIGANTIC SEA WALL SAVES GALVESTON

"ONLY FOURTEEN DEAD" IS MESSAGE BROUGHT FROM STRICKEN CITY

FIVE HUNDRED HOUSES ARE CRUSHED BY WIND AND WAVES

Thousand Feet of Sea Wall is Torn Away—Causeway is Cut in Two at the Drawbridge—Three Fires Do Great Damage—City is Without Water Supply—Financial Loss May Reach $15,000,000—Bay Towns Suffer Heavily.

The gulf storm which raged along the coast of Texas Monday and Tuesday collected a toll of at least 112 human lives and a property damage variously estimated from $15,000,000 to $50,000,000 according to best available information at hand at an early hour this morning.

Detail of the havoc wrought by the hurricane came from a few of the most important communities, but still many towns and hamlets remained isolated. Wild rumors circulated throughout the afternoon and early evening hours to the effect that hundreds of bodies had been given up by the receding waters of the gulf flood, but these later were discredited. One report in particular which came from San Antonio was to the effect that 500 bodies of Galveston inhabitants had been washed ashore on high points near Houston. This was discredited subsequently. According to most reliable information available early this evening the known dead was recorded as:

Virginia Point, 30; Texas City, 18; Galveston, 14; Morgan's Point, 11; Patton, 10; Hitchcock, 7; La Porte, 7; Port Arthur, 4; Lynchburg, 3; Sylvan Beach, 3; Seabrook, 3; Houston, 2. Total, 112.

Property loss estimated were vague except in a few instances. Houston, Texas City and Port Arthur advised gave fairly definite figures for those places but most of the other towns reported in such phrases as "considerable," "very heavy" and "not yet estimated."

Probably the most conservative of the estimates were as follows: Galveston, $15,000,000 or more. Houston, $2,000,000. Texas City, $400,000. Port Arthur, $200,000. Seabrook, $100,000. Sabine, $100,000. Sabine Pass, $100,000. Kemah, $50,000.

In addition there was an enormous loss to cotton growers in the storm belt, some estimates stating that 25 per cent of the crop of central Texas was destroyed and placing the loss at "millions of dollars." The oil fields also suffered severely and it is probable that it will take $500,000 to replace destroyed derricks, recap unroofed tanks and repair damaged machinery.

That the death list did not approach that of the storm of 1900 was due to two causes—the strength of the Galveston sea wall and the haste with which residents of the coastal plains sought places of refuge in conformity with the warnings of the government weather bureau. Galveston, as in 1900, bore the brunt of the storm but this year was bulwarked against the elements.

The storm reached its height there at 3 a. m. Tuesday when the wind rose to 92 miles an hour. This was eight miles an hour more than the weather bureau recorded for the 1900 visitation.

DALLAS, Aug. 18.—"Only fourteen dead in Galveston" was the message brought tonight from the storm stricken city and flashed to night to thousands of anxious persons who had relatives in that port of sorrow.

Galveston has undergone one of the severest storms in the annals of the Gulf of Mexico and has emerged battered and sorely burdened with financial loss but saved from destruction by its gigantic sea wall.

Drinking Water Supply Cut Off. "Water everywhere and not a drop to drink" is the complaint in Galveston tonight. The mains leading to the city's supply wells at Alta Loma 18 miles over on the mainland have been broken.

The first messenger from Galveston reached Houston today bringing news. Besides the loss of life Galveston is covered with the debris crushed by the assaults of wind and tidal waves. A thousand feet of the sea wall which skirts the southern and the causeway which connects Galveston with the outside world has been cut in two at the drawbridge. Three fires have done great damage and the city is without water supply.

Place Loss at $15,000,000. Those who attempt to estimate the 1900 storm, which was estimated at $15,000,000.

For more than 48 hours Galveston was out of touch with the world, except for a few feeble wireless messages. Shortly after six o'clock Monday night the wires went down. From that time until late today only the wireless has been able to send United States transport Buford to the army wireless station at San Antonio.

The belated report of today says that the storm reached its zenith at 3 o'clock Tuesday morning with a wind velocity of 92 miles an hour before which the frail wood cottages on the boulevard along the sea wall crumpled and scattered.

Attribute Salvation to Dyke.

Despite the fact that a thousand feet of the sea wall was battered away Galveston attributes its salvation as a city to the big dyke which was built a few years after the storm of 1900. One break of 25 feet wide in front of the Galveston Hotel let in most of the water that damaged the residential section.

The surprisingly low loss of life is due probably to the lesson of 1900. The population Monday night sought refuge in the stronger buildings of the city whereas in the disastrous storm of fifteen years ago the residents remained in their homes feeling secure against the gale which took the lives of 8,000 people.

Beach Amusements Washed Away.

All the city's resort bath houses and beach amusements have been swept away. The Murdoch, the Breakers and the Surf bath houses each of which was a commodious structure, were demolished and heaped upon the boulevard in debris.

Huddled near the beach boulevard from twenty-first to twenty-sixth streets was a row of small shops, booths, dancing pavilions, restaurants and hotels. These are reported to have been destroyed. To the west and to east of this section were summer cottages skirting the boulevard, all of which are said to have been total losses.

The loss to the city port facilities has been enormous and all kinds of craft have suffered. The United States transport McClellan is high aground on Pelican island and artificial spot north of Galveston just across the ship channel. Many vessels have been capsized and several are reported to have been destroyed.

How Galveston can mend its water mains and reestablish traffic across the causeway in time to prevent acute suffering are problems for engineers. The railroad running into the city have moved all available men and machinery from north Texas into the storm zone, penetrating as fast as human toll can advance the wrecking trains but this progress is slow and for the next several days Galveston probably will have to depend largely on its own resources.

Four of Dead Were Soldiers.

Of the fourteen who lost their lives four were soldiers and ten were civilians. All were trying to reach the Tremont Hotel the refuge of thousands of persons.

The extent of the city's fire loss had not been summed up tonight but three fires wrought great damage Monday night the storm being too severe for fire department to control them.

In bearing the brunt of the storm, Galveston island and Bolivar peninsula served as barriers to break the force of the hurricane against little bay shore towns which skirt the large body of water lying to the north of the island.

Bay Towns Suffer Heavily.

The bay towns have suffered heavily but probably have been saved from utter devastation. Dependable accounts of the losses in these lesser towns have not been thus far obtainable but the loss of lives is proportionately greater in each of the bay towns than in Galveston. In Virginia Point the north end of the causeway, more than a score are dead; at Texas City, 18, ten of whom were soldiers, are reported drowned, seven at Port Arthur, and three at

When wire communication was restored with Houston today the details of the disaster which they city had suffered unfolded. Two persons were killed during the storm and the property loss has been estimated at two million dollars.

The hurricane struck Houston Monday night several hours after the last wire to Galveston had gone out. All along the gulf coast the wrecking winds and water leveled heavy toll. Texas City, across the bay from Galveston sustained damage amounting to $400,000, divided among citizens, the industries and the United States army. Approximately 150 buildings were destroyed at Texas City.

No Word from Port Bolivar.

No word has been received tonight from Port Bolivar, directly across the narrowest part of the bay from Galveston since Monday night and reported to have been entirely under water.

Flake, Patton, Capelan and Roll-over also are Bolivar peninsula towns from which no word has been brought since Monday. All these were subjected to the storm at its very worst.

In the Beaumont section Port Arthur, Sabine, Sabine Pass and Round Lake, were deluged and are reported to have been heavy losers.

Tonight stories of individual suffering and hardship began to filter in from the storm area. E. D. Armstrong, of Morgans Point, was rescued yesterday after clinging to a raft for nine hours in the storm and brought to Houston on the tug Mary Ima.

A story of the heroism of Sergeant Petty, at Texas City, was told tonight. The soldier Tuesday morning swam nearly a mile to safety with the baby of the express agent to Texas City. Then he returned and brought out the mother and an older child. Much praise has been given the soldiers for their conduct during the storm.

Tug Arrives at Houston.

Houston, Tex., Aug. 18.—Three million dollars is the storm's toll in loss of property at Galveston according to Capt. D. E. Dujoy, of the tug Gertrude, under government charter, which arrived here late today direct from Galveston.

The death list he placed at fourteen. On board the tug were Capt. F. N. Nelson of the United States engineering service and several other persons. They left Galveston at 8 o'clock this morning.

According to Capt. Dujoy and Capt. Nelson, many of the smaller houses in the east and west end of Galveston were demolished, many buildings damaged and almost all the windows in business houses broken.

Many Vessels Wrecked. About 300 large and small craft of all descriptions, including big steamers, schooners, dredges, barges and launches were in the harbor when the storm struck Galveston Monday. Practically all the small vessels were wrecked, beached or damaged and many of the larger vessels beached and damaged.

Capt. Dujoy said the death list might be increased by the drowning of crews of some of these ships.

City Under Military Rule.

Mayor Lewis Fisher placed the city under military rule at 9 o'clock Monday night, because looting had started, mostly by negroes. Four regiments of the United States army, the fourth, seventh, nineteenth and twenty-eighth are paroling the city, which has been divided into four districts.

Passengers on the Gertrude said it was reported that twenty negroes were caught while looting stores, were shot and killed by soldiers Monday night but this could not be confirmed.

Fire broke out in the Armour packing plant Tuesday and the establishment was destroyed. It was said; fire also destroyed pier No. 21, a large cotton warehouse and when the Gertrude left another fire was raging in a printing house at Mechanics and Twenty-fourth streets.

City water, gas and electric power plants all were shut off while repairs were being made in damaged buildings and stores.

Interned Steamer Rescues Ninety. An interned Austrian steamer rescued ninety men, women and children from Port Bolivar just before the storm broke.

That vessel now is aground on Red Fish reef.

The water, it was said, was higher in the streets than in 1900, being six to eight feet deep in the business section. Most of the big hotels, warehouses and elevators on the seawall front escaped serious damage but stocks of merchandise everywhere were water soaked.

While no appeal for aid was issued, Mayor Fisher issued a statement to the effect that Galveston needed flour, fresh meat, other food stuffs and fresh water.

The only connection with Galveston tonight is with boat and it will be several days before wire communication is restored.

All along the ship canal between Houston and Galveston, wreckage of all kinds is to be seen. Plans are being made to send

THOUSANDS STARVING IN MEXICAN CAPITAL

BODIES OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN
PICKED UP IN STREETS DAILY

American Red Cross Agent Brings Story of Serious Conditions to Puebla—Travel to Vera Cruz is Regarded as Dangerous.

Puebla, Mex., Aug. 12, via New Orleans, Aug. 18.—Thousands of people are starving in Mexico City and bodies of women and children are daily being picked up in the streets there according to an American Red Cross agent who arrived here today from the capital.

Traveling between Mexico City and Vera Cruz is regarded as dangerous and the railroad lines are infested with bands of Zapata followers. Almost every day a train loaded with Carranza troops is blown up. Few civilians venture on the road. Of the many foreigners in the capital who wish to leave scarcely a dozen have come out.

Bandits opposed to Carranza still are active in Vera Cruz state. Their boldness in attacking property with a few miles of Carranza's headquarters has aroused anxiety that the railroad to Mexico City may be cut again.

Since the filing of the above despatch six days ago, reports to the American Red Cross through the consular department have pictured conditions in Mexico City as very bad. It was said the Carranza authorities were transporting food from Vera Cruz in an effort to relieve suffering. This statement, however, was credited to a Carranza source.

BOARD OF ARBITRATION RESUMES EXECUTIVE SESSION IN CHICAGO

Attempting to Clear Up Disputed Points in Award in Western Railroad Wage Case.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—The United States board of arbitration, which recently made an award in the controversy between ninety-eight western railroads and 60,000 engineers and firemen and now is engaged in attempting to clear up disputed points resulting from differences of opinion as to the interpretation of nearly two hundred features of the award, resumed its executive session here today. Members of the board declined to discuss what progress was being made in settling the disputed points or to state what features of the award were under discussion.

Judge J. C. Pritchard, of Asheville, N. C., when asked concerning his deliberations on the board said: "I am not at liberty to say what points are being discussed at our meetings. The sessions are private and the members of the board have agreed not to give out any information until all of the points in dispute have been settled. The meetings will continue for several days and when we have ended our business the conclusions of the board will be made public."

M. & ST. L. ROAD COMPLETES THE PURCHASE OF ITS SUBSIDIARY

DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 18.—The Minneapolis and St. Louis Railway company today completed the purchase of its subsidiary, the old Des Moines and Fort Dodge railroad, by the filing here of a deed and two mortgages.

The transfer is on a stock basis. The stockholders of the M. & St. L. line getting two shares of the Des Moines line for one share of M. & St. L. The consideration is said to be $2,523,500.

The transfer is subject to two mortgages of a million dollars each in favor of the Central Trust company of New York and the Equitable Trust company of New York.

JONES-AYLING WEDDING. Kennebunkport, Me., Aug. 18.—This village is the scene of a society wedding today, when Miss Mary Bishop Jones of Chestnut Hill, Pa., becomes the bride of John Gray Ayling of Syracuse, N. Y. Among the bridesmaids are Miss Elizabeth Daltas of Philadelphia, Miss Bowen of New York and Miss Cecily Rodgers of Columbus, Ohio. The ceremony will take place in St. Anne's Church in the village, and many society people have gathered here for the occasion.

GEN. BLACK'S FUNERAL TODAY. Chicago, Aug. 18.—Funeral services for Gen. John C. Black, former commander of the G. A. R., and one time pension commissioner and president of the United States civil service who suddenly died yesterday, will be held tomorrow morning at the home of his son, John Donald Black. The funeral party will leave at noon for Danville, Ill., where burial will take place.

ON GAMBLING CHARGE. Chief of Police Davis and the day police force were parties in a raid yesterday afternoon as a result of which nine young men were arrested on a gambling charge. The men were in a room over Seaver's black-

AUSTRO-GERMANS CAPTURE KOVNO

Victory Opens Road to Vilna, Warsaw and Petrograd Railway

TRIUMPH FOR BIG GUNS

Success Places Germans in Position to Threaten Flank of the Russian Armies

RUSS RETREAT ORDERLY

LONDON, Aug. 18.—Kovno, one of the crucial points in the Russian defensive in the north, was captured by the Germans last night and the road to the Vilna, Warsaw and Petrograd railway now is open to the troops of Emperor William.

The capture of the fortress was another triumph for the German 16 inch guns, which, throughout the present war, have been brought against no fortifications they were unable to subdue. With the fortress of Kovno the Germans have taken 400 guns and, according to their account, an enormous quantity of war material.

Opens Way to Railway.

This, however, is not the most serious part of the matter to the Russians. Besides opening the way to Vilna, which is an open town and from which most of the inhabitants have fled and everything that might be of use to the invaders has been removed, the fall of the fortress takes away the last protection, with the exception of the Russian field army, to the main line railway to the capital. It also places the Germans in a position to threaten the flanks of the Russian armies retiring to the Brest-Litovsk and those operating in southern Courland.

Grand Duke Nicholas apparently expected the fall of Kovno, for his armies are hastening their retirement in Poland eastward. They still hold their own from Kovno to the south of Osowetz, but south of that they are being pressed from the northwest by Generals von Scholz and von Gallwitz and from the west by Arch Duke Leopold, who has crossed the Bug river and is approaching the Brest-Litovsk and Bialystok railway. It is the same in the south, where General von Mackensen, after many prebuds, finally has succeeded in driving the Muscovites into their outer positions of the fortress of Brest-Litovsk.

Part of Army in Serious Danger.

For the first time since he began his retirement from western Galicia in May, Grand Duke Nicholas, in the opinion of military observers, finds part of his army in serious danger of envelopment. The Russian commander continues an orderly retreat, however, as is evidenced by the fact that the guns taken with the fortress of Kovno or captured in the forts of Novogeorgievsk, two more of which have fallen, the Germans make no claim to the capture of artillery. It would appear also that few prisoners have been taken, which doubtless means that a considerable part of the Austro-Germans in their most recent advance have not met with serious fighting.

While fighting to crush the Russian army the Germans are finding time for minor activities in other fields. Last night they carried out their seventeenth air raid on England, visiting eastern counties where they dropped bombs which, according to the official communication, killed ten and injured thirty-six civilians.

A despatch from Holland today reported that another quartet of dirigibles was on the way over to England, but nothing further has been heard of them. Tonight is clear and it is probable that the airship commanders, believing it likely that their craft would be discovered by the British air patrol, have turned back. Last night was dark and misty—an ideal night for air raiders.

Submarines Sink Seven Ships.

The German submarines also have been busy and during the day the sinking of three British and three neutral steamers and a trawler has been reported.

As an offset to the German success in the east the French official communication reports further gains for the French troops in the Vosges. While General Sir Ian Hamilton, commander of the allied forces on the Gallipoli peninsula, announces an advance by the new force of allied troops which landed at Suvla Bay and the repulse of a Turkish attack against the right flank of the Australians. The Turks on the other hand say that all the British attacks were

GENERAL VILLA'S REPLY REACHES WASHINGTON

ANSWER TO APPEAL WILL BE GIVEN TO LANSING TODAY

It is Understood to Accept Offer of Conference to Restore Government in Mexico—Carranza's Response is in Course of Preparation.

Washington, Aug. 18.—General Villa's reply to the Pan-American appeal for a peace conference was received today by the Villa agent here, Enrique C. Lorente, and will be presented to Secretary Lansing tomorrow. It is understood to accept the offer of the conference to aid in restoring government in Mexico.

First Answer From Carranza.

The first answer to the appeal to reach the state department came today from General Carranza, Villa governor of Lower California, telegraphed through the American consul at Ensenada. This is said to be favorable and in line with that of General Villa himself.

General Carranza's response has not yet been received but it is known to be in course of preparation. That he will endeavor to convince the Pan-American conference that recognition of his government is the wise course to pursue and the only way to establish peace in Mexico generally is understood here.

Before the reply is forwarded Gen. Obregon is expected to make a strenuous attempt to capture Villa's stronghold at Torreón. Carranza's agents here say the city will fall by Saturday.

It became known tonight that all of the principal Carranza generals have entered into an agreement to make similar replies to the appeal sent them. Each one will describe conditions in the territory he controls and declare that he holds it for "the constitutional government."

Spring-Rice Calls on Lansing.

Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, called on Secretary Lansing today to talk over the Mexican situation. Great Britain is concerned over the large English holdings in Mexico and is anxious to support a plan for restoration of peace.

The battleships Louisiana and New Hampshire arrived at Vera Cruz today after a rough passage across the Gulf. The wireless dispatch announcing their arrival made no mention of the situation in the Carranza capital. The state department has had no reports either from Mexico City or from Vera Cruz for several days. The storm having wrecked the telegraph lines at the cable end at Galveston and possibly also at Vera Cruz.

OFFICIALS CONFIRM REPORT.

New York, Aug. 18.—United States Steel officials today confirmed a report that an order for 65,000 tons of steel rails has been received from the Russian government, presumably for use in the further construction of the trans-Siberian road. Additional orders for 60,000 tons are said to have been placed with the Pennsylvania Steel company and its subsidiary, the Maryland Steel company. The amount involved is not disclosed but the price is believed to be in excess of $28 per ton rate paid by American roads.

FARMER STABBED TO DEATH.

Milford, Ill., Aug. 18.—Ellis Brazell was stabbed to death here this afternoon. Charles Smith, who was working with him on a threshing gang, was accused of the crime. The men quarreled, it is said, because their wagons ran together. Brazell was the son of Fred Brazell, a prominent farmer. He died instantly.

IOWA ELKS IN CONVENTION.

Iowa City, Ia., Aug. 18.—The 10th annual reunion of the Iowa Elks opened here today. The annual business meeting is set for Thursday evening, and on Friday a big parade will be held. Dr. C. L. Leigh of Davenport is the state president.

ALBERTA OIL PROBE SET FOR TODAY.

Calgary, Alta., Aug. 18.—Judge Carpenter will today open a court of inquiry to hear and consider complaints against oil companies in the Province. Many complaints have been received.

Progress Would Threaten Turks.

Any progress made by the British at Suvla Bay would, according to the military experts, be important, as it would threaten the Turks who are facing the Austrians down the coast and, like the other operations against Turkey, have an influence on the Balkan states, which seemingly are about to decide which set of belligerents they will join. Serbia probably will make her reply this week to the suggestion of the entente ministers that she cede Macedonia to Bulgaria. Opinion is divided in Serbia as to what the reply should be, but it is expected here that it will be favorable.

TO MAKE THOROUGH PROBE OF LYNCHING

Rewards Will Be Offered for Arrest and Conviction of the Mob

TO MEET COMMITTEE

Gov. Harris Hopes to Obtain Information that Will Lead to Identification of Lynchers

EXCLUDE POSTALS FROM MAIL

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 18.—Plans for investigating the abduction and lynching of Leo M. Frank went forward steadily today. Governor Harris stated that a thorough inquiry would be made and that rewards would be offered for the arrest and conviction of the men who took Frank from the state prison at Milledgeville and hanged him near Marietta.

"I am inexpressibly shocked," said the governor. "This affair has placed a blot upon the fair name of our state that never can be wiped out. Every effort within my power will be made to bring the guilty members of the mob to justice. At the proper time I will offer rewards for the arrest and conviction of the men and I will urge the judge, the solicitor and the sheriff to make diligent efforts to apprehend them."

To Confer With Committee.

Governor Harris will have a conference with the three members of the state prison committee tomorrow. Each of the commissioners was in Warden Smith's home the night Frank was kidnapped. They had been making a regular inspection of the prison.

The governor hopes to obtain information from the commissioners and possibly some of the prison officials, who were overpowered, that will lead to the identification of some of the lynchers.

The Marietta end of the investigation was not pressed today. The coroner's jury which held a brief session yesterday had adjourned until next Tuesday. Much interest attaches to what may be brought out when the jury reassembles with the special counsel provided by the Cobb county commissioners. Official opinion here is that Milledgeville is the place for the investigation or at least the beginning of it.

That the prison commission would not make an inquiry was further indicated today when another member, E. L. Rainey, stated he did not think any one connected with the prison was to blame. The commission has power in handling prison affairs and in the conference tomorrow the commissioners will act only in an advisory capacity.

Was Not Harmed on Trip.

Stories represented as coming indirectly from "men who knew" reciting details of the actual lynching increased in number today. Each one of the accounts indicated that Frank was not harmed on the trip from Milledgeville to the lynching scene and that he faced death in full realization of the gang's intentions.

Local postal authorities today excluded from the mails post card photographs of Frank's body before it was cut down. Photographers and others did a large business selling them in Marietta and Atlanta.

Acting Mayor Ragsdale received several protests against their sale here today but said he was powerless to stop the vendors who had obtained a license to sell them.

AGED IOWA EDITOR DIES.

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 18.—Clarence S. Wilson, founder of the Des Moines Daily News, a former state legislator and a veteran of the civil war, died in a hospital today aged 75 years.

The inhabitants of the city of Galveston outdo those who dwell at the base of Mount Vesuvius for sheer bravery.

The Nobel Peace prizes will not be distributed this year, according to advice from Stockholm. The money is ready but there is some difficulty in finding anybody to bestow it upon.

Cherry Mine Fund.

In all the comments made upon the Eastland disaster scarcely a word was recalled of the great Cherry mine disaster which erased so many lives. The Cherry Relief Commission has just made public a report from Springfield. The commission was established in 1910 and has paid to the beneficiaries to date $180,758.17 and has a balance unexpended of $177,328.58. The report of condition of the relief fund showed that of $304,815.79 total receipts over $34,000 will be left after all payments have been made. Through re-marriage $121,231.59 will be saved the commission.

Oiled Road Pays For Itself in Week.

According to the fantagraph a farmer who sowed his share on the oiled road from Chenoa to Meadows happened to shell corn on a rainy day after the road had been oiled. After he was through shelling he went to the man at the head of the oiling and gave him the same amount that he did before and said he would be ashamed of himself for not giving more the first time. He said the oiled road more than paid for itself during his shelling.

There is little doubt about the benefit of proper road oiling if the highway is in shape to receive the oil. Farmers in Scott, Cass, Morgan and other counties in this section of the state have come to see that the oiled road is no longer in the experimental stage, but is a positive benefit to them and to all who use the highways.

Prices at Home and Abroad.

Recent events have shed new light on the practice of selling American products at one price at home and at another price abroad. A few years ago there was much criticism of some manufacturing concerns which, in order to keep men employed and factories running full capacity, produced more goods than the home market would absorb and sold the surplus abroad at a reduced price. The reduced price was necessary in order to sell the good in competition with the foreign producer. Now, it appears, the United States Steel corporation is selling much of its product abroad at higher prices than received at home. In the former instance, as at present, the foreign sales gave employment to American labor and furnished a market for American raw material. Formerly, the American manufacturer had to undersell his foreign competitor in the foreign market. Now the European war has cut off the competition. This is food for thought among men who are interested in the problem of finding a job for the American workman whether there is a war or not.

National Bankruptcy.

The argument has been advanced by the Philadelphia Record that the bankruptcy of the nations now at war may eventually bring about peace. It declares that Great Britain is paying out $13,000,000 a day as her share of the war expenditure. It is estimated that if the fighting continues until April 1, 1916 war expenses alone will amount to $6,500,000,000. This argument was recently advanced during the progress of the Civil war in this country. The Southern states, with a population of between eleven and twelve millions, with resources infinitely less than possessed by the northern states, with a population of 20,000,000 was supposed to be bankrupt, and, as a matter of fact, they practically were bankrupt for the last two years of the war. Yet they managed to maintain armies on the field and to perform prodigies of valor even at the time when the Confederacy was without funds and without credit. The same thing will undoubtedly apply to Europe. Measured by all financial standards at hand the governments now at war should have exhausted their supply of cash some time ago, yet they go on raising funds with the utmost ease, and will probably continue to do so as long as the war lasts.

Tribune Uses Strong Language.

In an editorial on Leo M. Frank Wednesday The Chicago Tribune editorial artist used some pretty strong terms in his denunciation of the men who composed the mob which killed the young Jew, the sentiment of the people, and the people of the south as a whole. The average man will not go to the extremes of the Tribune writer in denouncing the people of the south as a whole for the diabolical hatred shown by a few men of that section of the country. However, there is a grain of truth in the article referred to, much more truth in it, alas, than we are at all ready to admit. It is to be deplored that such conditions do exist anywhere within the borders of the nation.

A portion of the Tribune editorial follows:
The present governor of Georgia, when he was told that raiders had broken into the state penitentiary and were running away with their victim to some place where they would kill him, said feebly that he was sure the good people of the state would deplore the act. We doubt it. The real protection the raiders had was the sentiment of the state and the real disgrace in which the state stands is that sentiment.

The south is backward. It shames the United States by illiteracy and incompetence. Its hill men and poor whites its masses of feared and bullied blacks, its ignorant and violent politicians, its rotten industrial conditions, and its rotten social ideas exist in circumstances which disgrace the United States in the thought of Americans and in the opinion of foreigners.

When the north exhibits a demonstration of violence against law by gutter rats of society there is shame in the locality which was the scene of the exhibition. When the south exhibits it there is defiance of opinion.

The south is barely half educated. Whatever there is explicable in the murder of Leo M. Frank is thus explainable. Leo M. Frank was an atom in the American structure. He might have died, unknown or ignored, a thousand deaths more agonizing in preliminary torture and more cruel in final execution, and have had no effect, but the spectacle of a struggling human being, helpless before fate as a mouse in the care of a cat, will stagger American complacency.

The south is half educated. It is a region of illiteracy, blatant self-righteousness, cruelty, and violence. Until it is improved by the invasion of better blood and better ideas it will remain a reproach and a danger to the American republic.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS.

New York.—Because college graduates are particular to bring up no more children than they are able to educate and rear properly is the cause assigned to the small families of the college graduates by Frances Fear in Leslie's. More than half of Vassar graduates do not marry, she writes, and these who do have less than two children. Bryn Mawr's record is even worse—only one-third of her graduates have married, and they have borne one-third of a child each, speaking statistically. The college man and college woman, because of the long period of preparation, are later than others in entering the business or professional world. Marrying later in life they naturally have fewer children than those who marry early. Nor would the investigation be complete unless it took account of the intellectual quality of the children whose parents are, compared with those whose parents are not, college graduates. Parents today desire to have no more children than they are able to educate and bring up properly, and no doubt college graduates think of this more than many others.

Oakland, Cal.—The annual gathering of the teachers of the United States began today in Oakland. Many thousands of women teachers are attending, and more than ever the women are taking a leading part in the directing of the big educational association. It is believed Miss Grace C. Strachan, of New York, will be elected to the presidency of the N. E. A. in recognition of woman's great work in the educational field.

Philadelphia.—Deciding that the word "widow" cannot be recognized as including "widower," a Philadelphia judge has ended a puzzling question raised in a law suit. A woman member of a labor union recently died, and the by-laws of the union conferred death benefits only on the "widow" and dependents. The husband sued for his "widow" benefit, but the court decided against him. And so henceforth a "widow" is legally a woman.

Battle Creek, Mich.—Taller, darker women, clothed in more sensible dress, will typify the "eugenic woman" of the future, says Dr. A. J. Read of the Normal School of Physical Education, in this city. "The ideal woman of the eugenic age," he says, "will be plump and well rounded, but not fat. She will be ruddy, not pale as the present day women, because the pale skin is a badge of disease rather than of health. Woman's dress is much more sensible today than 20 years ago. The hygienic dress, however, should be suspended from the shoulders, leaving the waist free."

New York.—Lieutenant Maria Morales, one of Mexico's famous woman military leaders, has been killed, according to advices contained in a Vera Cruz newspaper which has reached this city. The scortia who has repeatedly shown courage in many engagements, the head of her men, was shot while leading the defense of a train that has been attacked by Zapata's followers. Lieut. Morales was a Carranza adherent. According to the report, she led the escort of the train and forced the bandits to give ground and would have won a complete victory if she had not been shot down.

Washington.—Friends are coming to the aid of Mrs. Belya Lockwood, who in her younger days was the most prominent woman in America, and who is now practically penniless and dependent on voluntary aid in her 88th year. Andrew Carnegie has recently granted her a pension, and others are aiding the venerable woman. It was she who secured equal pay for women in the government service, and secured the right for women to practice law before the Supreme Court. She has taken prominent part in the peace movement, in temperance and in woman suffrage. She was twice nominated for the Presidency of the United States by the Equal Rights Party.

Washington.—Strewing flowers on the waves on Memorial Day, the beautiful naval memorial custom in tribute to those who died on the waters during the Civil War, was originated by Mrs. Armitage S. C. Forbes of South Pasadena, Calif. The thought which had come to her found its way to others when she invited all school teachers who lived beside the waters of California to join with her in remembering the sailors. This movement began in 1909, the president endorsed it, and it is now generally carried out on Memorial Day in the seacoast cities.

CASES OF INTEREST.

Breach of Contract For Special Train.

This action was brought to recover damages in the sum of $20,000 for the breach of a contract to furnish a special train, the alleged result of the breach being anxiety, great mental pain, and anguish. Defendants operate a railroad from Reno, in the state of Nevada, to Doyle and Amedee, in California. On Jan. 21, 1911, the plaintiff was notified that his son, who had been frozen in a snowstorm, was suffering from blood poisoning near Doyle, and that it was necessary that he be removed at once to Reno for medical treatment, and that in case of delay death was almost certain. Plaintiff immediately contracted with the defendant railroad for the consideration of $125, which he paid in advance, for a special train to leave Reno at 6 o'clock the next morning and proceed to Doyle and return immediately to Reno with him and his son. The plaintiff, according to his testimony, claims that at the time of the agreement for the special train and of the serious condition in which his son was and of the necessity for a speedy removal to Reno for treatment, and the great danger to his life in case of delay. His testimony also discloses the facts that the train did not leave upon the agreed time, which was 6 o'clock, and that, instead of being held in readiness for the return trip of plaintiff and his son to Reno, after arriving at Doyle it was falsely represented to plaintiff that it was necessary to run the train to Amedee for the purpose of securing fuel that the trip from Doyle to Amedee occupied the space of two hours, and that it was entirely unnecessary, he finding out later that in fact there was no fuel procured at Amedee, and that the defendant took on passengers and attached to the train a car load of cattle, all these things delaying the train more than three hours, whereby the plaintiff claims that he suffered damages in the sum of $20,000. The supreme court of Nevada held that the defendant company being aware of all the facts and circumstances and of the great need and necessity of the speed of the trip, the serious illness of the son, and the results which would be caused by a delay, there was no excuse, legal or moral, for the willful, flagrant and deceptive breach by the appellant of the contract for the special train, and that the plaintiff should be allowed a recovery of $5,000. ## WILL SEND BUTTER FROM JACKSONVILLE TO LONDON.

A twenty thousand pound car of butter is being prepared for shipment by Swift & Co. and Friday it will leave for London, England, by way of Boston. The product is packed in cubical boxes of fifty-six pounds weight and each box is covered with a muslin sack.

England of recent months has bought more than the average amount of butter in the United States. Ireland, Holland and Scandinavia still ship some butter, but the shipments from Denmark have been hindered by the war. The Australian supply is short by reasons of increased shipment to South America and England is looking to America in part to supply the shortage.

MISS FRANCES MELTON LEAVES FOR NEW YORK.

Capt. J. W. Melton of South Main street, has received word that his daughter Miss Frances V. Melton has been appointed to a position on the faculty in the musical department of the Cathedral School—a Protestant Episcopal institution of learning located in Baguio, Island of Luzon, in the Philippine group, of which mention was made in yesterday's Journal. Baguio is situated in the mountains in the fear of Manila. She sailed from Tacoma, Washington for her island home on Aug. 16.

Miss Melton has devoted four years to piano study in Europe under masters in Paris, Berlin and Vienna and came home on account of the disturbed conditions prevailing because of the European war. It was not her intention to engage in teaching at this time, but the position tendered so strongly appealed to her that she changed her plans and accepted it. The president of the Cathedral School early in the summer was in Nagasaki, Japan and there met Miss Frances E. Melton, a sister of Miss Frances, who is a missionary to Japan, and through this meeting came the engagement of Miss Frances to her position on Luzon Island.

H. J. Rockwood, of the Clover Leaf Casualty company, has gone to Missouri on business. T. J. Kelly, of the same company, is in St. Louis and southern Illinois.

ONLY FOURTEEN DEAD" MESSAGE BROUGHT FROM STRICKEN CITY

food and water from here to Galveston.

U. S. Army Camp Destroyed.
Washington, Aug. 18.—War department dispatches sent from Texas City to Houston by wireless said the United States army camp there had been destroyed by a tidal wave and high tide which covered the city with three to five feet of water. Troopers were searching for dead and caring for the injured. The storm still raged.

The dispatch which was sent from Texas City by Major General Bell said:

"Violent wind and rain, greatly increased after ailing first message yesterday evening, reached culmination at about midnight. Tidal waves and flood water combined, rose to an average height of three to five feet throughout Texas City and the surrounding country. All camps are a total loss, including wooden structures. Not a vestige is left. Near the bay and camp ground now is a lake. All public and private property in camp is almost total loss except animals transportation and ordnance equipment. A few animals and considerable harness were lost. Floating wreckage is piled up in the streets. Violence of the wind was such that many craft of considerable size were blown and floated into the city near the bay shore.

Soldiers at Rescue Work.
"The command was greatly scattered seeking shelter during the night. The storm still is too violent to accomplish much this morning except the rescue of women and children and search for dead and injured. Temporary hospital was established in the Southern hotel yesterday. Most of the dead and injured were recovered and cared for last night.

"Most substantial business houses and residences stood but some were unroofed. Considerable number of small frame buildings were blown down and floated into streets. Some were blown off foundations. All temporary wooden buildings were wrecked. Division headquarters, store tents and property are a total loss. The depot quartermasters Texas City branch storehouse was unroofed. Property and supplies were soaked but are mostly usable. Culverts and small bridges are gone. Roads generally are impassable. All railroads, telephone and telegraph lines temporarily are out of commission. No communication with outside. Nothing can be heard from Galveston. Number of people are homeless and without food but the visible supply probably will last until it can be replaced from Houston. Am furnishing food and succor to needy regardless of their status. There is no immediate need of outside assistance. Will make recommendation concerning future provisions for the command as soon as reorganization and rescue work are completed."

Camp Is Abandoned.
Another dispatch started from Texas City last night at 7:25 p. m. said:

"A violent tropical storm with wind and rain has been in progress here since noon. Wind from the northeast at 85 to 100 miles per hour, has backed up water in the bay. Camp is flooded and has been abandoned for safety. Electric light system out of commission. Darkness renders an estimate of the damage impossible, until the storm subsides. Some injuries but no dead yet reported. Galveston not definitely heard from but understood the 27th infantry camped on low ground, has abandoned its camp and moved. Further reports as soon as possible.

"Quite a number not yet listed are injured, some painfully but none seriously. Only one civilian is reported dead. Not yet identified. Two civilians slightly injured. All being cared for in our hospital. No dead or injured among families of officers or soldiers but many have lost everything. All have temporary shelter. Much discomfort but no serious suffering.

"Only serious menace to health is lack of water. Reservoirs are flooded with salt water and mud. Large sanitary force already organized and at work. Troops now securing shelter. Shall make gratuitous issue to soldiers who lost all clothing while saving animals and some government property. No serious suffering. Temperature mild."

Names of Dead Soldiers.
The names of ten soldiers who lost their lives in the storm were reported as follows:

Privates John J. Murphy, Charles S. Miller, Joseph R. Shankel, Halman Samet and Paul Seurean, all of Co. K, twenty-third infantry; Corporal William H. Moore and Privates Albert Mitchell, Thomas A. Watson and Henry J. Rivage, all of Co. M, twenty-third infantry and Cook Bader of the quartermaster corps.

Boston beat St. Louis yesterday by a score of 3 to 5. The Braves raised the world's pennant won last year from Philadelphia. The crowd was the largest probably ever seen at a game there being 32,000 paid admissions. Rudolph pitched good ball except in the closing innings and the visitors were never dangerous.

PETITION TO CONDEMN LAND FOR CEMETERY PURPOSES

Village of Murrayville Institutes Proceedings in County Court Wednesday.

The village of Murrayville on Wednesday afternoon instituted proceedings in the county court through petition to condemn land near that village for cemetery purposes. The present cemetery consists of three and one-half acres and is located on a land it is contemplated to condemn adjoining the corporation and contains seven acres.

The village has been embarrassed for some time over inadequate burial ground. It is the purpose of the village to have a jury selected to appraise the damages to Carey F. Strang to whom the land belongs. The village authorities have tried for some time to purchase the land from Mr. Strang but have never been able to reach an agreement. The law gives municipalities the right to acquire land by such procedure and this is the reason of the action. The petition follows:

The Petition.
Judge Thomson received the petition and set the time for hearing at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, Aug. 31. The petition reads as follows:

"State of Illinois, Morgan County.
"To the Honorable William E. Thomson, county judge:

"The village of Murrayville, in said county and state, respectfully submits hereby its petition for the purpose of the exercise of its power of eminent domain as authorized by statute in such case and provided. vided.

"This petitioner shows unto your honor that it is regularly organized as a village in conformity to the statute relating to the organization of villages and has need of the following described real estate for cemetery purposes, to wit: Beginning seven (7) in township thirteen (13) north, range ten (10) west of the third principal meridian, in said county, and state, thence running north to the southerly line of the right of way of the Chicago & Alton railroad company, as now located and used across said quarter section, and thence running southwesterly with said southerly line to the south line of said quarter section and thence east to the place of beginning; that the title to said premises is in Carey F. Strang, who is in possession thereof and no one else has any possession of or interest in the same; that this petitioner, through its president and trustees has in good faith endeavored to agree with said Carey F. Strang as to the amount of compensation to be paid him for taking said premises and has been unable to do so.

"The premises considered, this petitioner prays that your honor will take jurisdiction of this petition and note hereon the day of its presentation and also not the day when he will hear the same and order a summons to said Carey F. Strang, as the law provides, and the county clerk may, at the time of issuing of said summons, write the names of each of sixty-four disinterested freeholders of the county on sixty-four slips of paper, and, in the presence of two disinterested freeholders, cause to be selected from said sixty-four names, twelve of said persons to serve as jurors, such selection to be made by lot and without choice or discrimination, and issue a venire directed to the sheriff of said county, commanding him to summon the twelve persons so selected and jurors time named in the venire and determine and report as the law provides the compensation that will be due to said Carey F. Strang for the premises aforesaid.

"Respectfully submitted,
"The Village of Murrayville, by "Julian P. Lippincott, its attorney."

FUNERALS

Lindsay.

Funeral services for the late Wickliff Lindsay were held from the residence east of Litchberry Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. The services were in charge of the Rev. C. G. Cantrill. ## FRANKLIN ANNUAL HOME-COMING WILL BEGIN IN EARNEST TODAY

No Set Program Attempted Wednesday on Account of Bad Weather--Commercial Club and Citizens Join in Success of Festivities--List of Committees and Today's Events--Former Residents Who Return to Join in Celebration.

Franklin is in her glory for the second home coming in full blast and while J. Pluvius has not been wholly propitious it is hoped that he will be more merciful henceforth. Speeches, barbecue and burgoon dinner, all sorts of amusements and a general good time are the features and with good weather the affair is a splendid success.

Honor to Whom Honor Is Due.
Franklin has a commercial club of some fifty or sixty members and they are a live wire seeking the welfare and interests of the wide awake community.

It was organized last year with Dr. F. H. Metcalf, president, and the membership includes residents of Franklin and vicinity. Among its good works are the colling of streets of the place, the raising of $2,773.00 for a bid for the Burlington way to pass through the town, the general welfare and uplift of the place and vicinity and great credit is due its membership.

George Schaaf is chairman of the executive committee of the commercial club whose special object is to conserve the welfare and interests of the business men of the place. Last year Editor Warren Luttrell said why wouldn't it be a good idea to have a big home coming? Some doubting Thomases shook their heads fearing it would hardly be a heads fearing it would hardly be a meeting of its committee and they decided to go ahead. They appointed a soliciting committee and in a short time had a guarantee fund of $800 and the history of Franklin tells of the big success the first time.

A Success Again This Year.
This year it wasn't so hard to get it started and soon the committee had a guarantee of $700 promised and the affair went along. Last year about 40 per cent of the guarantee was called for which wasn't at all oppressive. To announce it was to get it going and it went with a whirl. Although the weather was so bad Wednesday morning, still a large crowd came and all had a good time. Franklin has a good sized square with a park like that of Jacksonville in the center and it presented an animated scene all day and as the clouds separated many more came in and had the weather been perfect it is safe to say there would have been ten thousand people present though as it was the crowd was large.

Everybody was in the best of humor; no rows, intoxicated or quarrelsome persons were seen and the special policemen had nothing to do but stand around and look wise. The weather was so unfortunate that no set program was attempted but all that was possible was done to make things pleasant and the day was well spent.

Attractions and Amusements.
Of course such an affair must have all sorts of attractions and amusements to please all. The Ferris wheel and merry go round are in their glory and alluring the dimes from the many visitors. Then there is the $10,000 jumping horse carousel; Waverly concert band which is excellent; Dubec's comedy animals, a rare attraction consisting of antics of rats, cats, monkeys and dogs; novelty barrel jumping and comedy acrobats, the last two free on a public platform; Josephine Montrome, lady clown in the Mysterious Castle; the children's quartette, Kathleen Calhoun and Pauline Olinger, vocalists, and Boulevard Calhoun and Wilbur Seymour, violinists; flag drill by fifty girls, Mrs. Bessie Hart, trainer; baby show; horse show; auto parade; speeches and many other features serve to keep people interested all day long and into the evening.

The comedy athletic contests consist of hobble race, picket pulling contest for ladies and girls, sack race, barrel race, potato races for men, boys and girls, tug of war.

The aim of the management is to have something on hand all the time as nearly as possible and keep everybody interested as much as in them lies.

Feeding the Multitude.
Splendid arrangements have been made for feeding the multitude and if supplied with funds there is no excuse for going away hungry. The provisions have been donated by public spirited citizens and the great array of waiters, cooks, assistants, all give their services without charge, showing the fine public spirit which prevails in the community. Under the trees in the square the tables are set and a bevy of attentive and attractive ladies wait on all who desire something for the inner Bread, cakes, pies and all sorts of goodies are served up but what is especially attractive is the burgoon soup and along side of it the old fashioned, delicious barbecued meats.

Barbecue Arrangements.
The barbecue arrangements are quite a novelty. A pit 22 feet 6 inches long, 6 feet 6 inches deep, 5 feet wide at the top and 3 feet 6 inches wide at the bottom serves for a cooking place. George Haynes and George Jolly, the town butcher, are in charge. At seven p. m. they began firing and in the pit burned six loads of dry elm which is next best to hickory wood, which is hardly available. By one a. m. coals were alive and the flame down and then the 600 pounds of beef and pork were placed on spits or iron rods laid across the pit. At first the heat was so strong they had to use trestles to keep the meat high enough up but later on they were able to let it down to the level of the ground and by 10:30 a. m. it was cooked in a delicious manner. It didn't look so very attractive but to the taste; Oh, my!

Though the weather was unpropitious the meat went off like, not exactly hot cakes, but hot barbecued meats and there is nothing like it in the world to eat.

It is basted every 15 minutes with a composition of leaf lard and suet, seasoned with pepper and salt and don't ask or expect anything better.

Potatoes are cooked in a big kettle. They are put in flour sacks and taken out a sack at a time and others put in so they always will be hot and good. A big kettle of beans also looks very tempting, the preparation combining the advantages of the roast and boil. Hocks of pork and various seasoning materials are used and make a fine combination.

The burgoon soup kettles are in charge of George Whittlock and his various assistants and while it didn't look like real burgoon not to see the veteran Isaac Watson in charge, the product tasted all right and with nothing to criticize. The meats are cut in a small apartment surrounded by fly netting so that George Jolly knows what he hands out will be free from anything but his hands and knife which are clean. The tables are in special charge of Mrs. Ed. Seymour with a host of attractive assistants too numerous to mention, though all deserve especial naming in the report.

There is a temptation to mention some of the persons who have been so especially active and capable in making the affair a success but it is hardly safe to select when so many have done so much. Of course there are a few who have done particularly hard work but they are satisfied with the success of the affair and don't ask for personal glory. The management of the Franklin Times have been unremitting in boosting the enterprise and a general public spirit has been manifested and is indeed gratifying.

The Committees.
The work of the affair is admirably allotted and there seems to be no friction and all work harmoniously. The whole business begins at the head and ramifies on down through all the branches. The committees are as follows, the first name being chairman.

General executive: George Schaaf, W. C. Calhoun, W. N. Luttrell, Dr. J. M. Elder, E. A. Roberts, J. D. Tolston.

Finance: J. P. Smith, F. F. Patterson, George Jolly, F. T. Miller, treasurer.

Program--W. N. Luttrell. Grounds and concessions: W. C. Hart, J. B. Wright, Newton Woods. Printing and advertising: J. O. Rolston, Warren Luttrell.

Publicity--E. A. Roberts, George N. Woods.

Speakers and reception--M. B. Keplinger, W. C. Calhoun, Dr. J. B. Perkins, Dr. J. M. Elder and Warren Luttrell.

Music--Newton Woods, E. A. Roberts.

Free entertainments--W. N. Luttrell.

Horse show--J. B. Sears, George Calhoun, George Boulevard and others.

Novelty and athletics--Lawrence Sears.

Automobile parade--J. B. Sears. First prize, $3.00; second, $2.00 and five more, each $1.00. Each driver gets a ticket and the prizes are drawn by lot.

Base ball--Joseph Anderson, Dennis Whalen, Audrey Beerup.

Decoration--Emmett Brazwell, George Hart, Leonard Hills.

Rest room--E. A. Roberts, Dr. J. M. Elder.

Barbecue--Dr. F. H. Metcalf and assistants.

The Rest Room.
The rest room is in the rear of the furniture store of which E. A. Roberts is manager and is a fine addition to the attractions of the affair for ladies here they may come and make their toilet, care for their babies, and take a rest in easy chairs or comfortable couches. It is in charge of Mrs. Annie Austin who is always attentive to the callers.

The Baby Show.
The baby show will be a feature which will attract many. The matter is well managed by Mrs. F. F. Patterson and the prizes will be:

Prettiest girl under six months, $2; second, $1.

Prettiest girl, six months to two years, $2; second, $1.

Prettiest boy under six months, $2; second, $1.

Prettiest boy six months to two years, $2; second, $1.

Prettiest baby of the four first prize winners, $2.

Home Comers.

It was not at all possible to get the names of all the home comers and many will no doubt arrive today. Among those who have already come are:

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duncan and sons, Walter and Charles W. of Peoria.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ranson, Louisiana, Mo. Mrs. Ranson was formerly Miss Frances Jackson.

Paul and Marie Dawson, Canton, Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wheeler and baby, Girard.

Charles Mann, Virden. Charles and John Patterson, Springfield, Ill.

Mrs. Sylvia Reuter, St. Louis. William Patterson, Springfield, Ill. Miss Marie Dawson, Canton, Ill.

Notes.
If there is any money left after paying the expenses of the home coming it is the intention to begin paying the square so that farmers hitching their teams about it will have a dry, hard place for the purpose.

The Journal reporter is under obligations to G. J. Dowell, George Schaaf, Gene Pyatt and E. A. Roberts.

Yes; S. S. S. Is Purely Vegetable Nature's Safe Blood Treatment

Known for 50 Years As the Best Remedy for Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Skin Diseases.

Scientists have discovered that the forest and the field, are abundantly supplied with vegetation of various kinds, that furnish the ingredients for making a remedy, for practically every ill and ailment of mankind. Medicines made from roots, herbs, and barks which Nature has placed at the disposal of man, are better than strong mineral mixtures and concoctions. Mineral medicines work dangerously on the delicate parts of the system, especially the stomach and bowels, by eating out the lining membrane, producing chronic dyspepsia and often entirely ruining the health.

S. S. S. is guaranteed to be a purely vegetable remedy. It is made entirely of gentle-acting, healing, purifying roots, herbs and barks, possessing properties that build up all parts of the system, in addition to removing all impurities and poisons from the blood. S. S. S. is a safe treatment for Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison, and all disorders of the blood. It cleanses the entire system and it's permanent. Get S. S. S. at any drug store. S. S. S. is a standard remedy recognized everywhere as the greatest blood antidote ever discovered. # Detroit Electric

Doubled output for 1916 reduces prices as low as $1975

As this town has electricity it is a practical Detroit Electric car town. Long stretches of paved streets are not a necessity for this car with its great power and remarkably easy riding qualities. Detroit Electric owners have demonstrated that it is just as good for interurban motoring as it is for driving about town.

You get these savings

Our doubled production leads to many economies in all overhead expenses, in purchasing, in advertising, in sales cost, in engineering. All the savings effected by our larger operations we hand on to you--and take our benefit from doubled volume,

August 15 we reduce the price $600 to $725 per car

Remember--these are the same high quality cars as our 1915 models plus a score or more of 1916 refinements. Even while lowering the price, we bettered the car. In the 1916 Detroit Electric, you will find --we believe--the top place-car of its type. We urge you to match it--if you can--in elegance, quality, utility, or value in the entire closed car field--gasoline or electric. This price reduction is possible only because of doubled output.

Here are the 1916 prices

Model 61 4-Passenger Brougham (Formerly $2,600)	Now $1,975
Model 60 5-Pass. Duplex Drive Brougham (Formerly $3,000)	Now $2,275
Model 59 5-Pass. Rear Drive Brougham (Formerly $2,950)	Now $2,225
Model 58 5-Pass. Front Drive Brougham (Formerly $2,950)	Now $2,250
Model 57 4-Pass. Rear Drive Brougham (Formerly $2,850)	Now $2,175
Model 56 3-Pass. Cabriolet (Formerly $2,650)	Now $2,075

You may have either the worm bevel gear or the worm gear; wire or wood wheels; cushion or pneumatic tires, as optional equipment.

Investigate the Detroit Electric at once--and learn why the 1916 Detroit Electric is the preferable car for you. Current for battery charging is furnished by your central power station at low rates ($5 to $7 per month) and is growing lower constantly.

EFFICIENCY

Efficiency is being used as a substitute for religion in a great many quarters. Efficiency saves money, time, material, temper, strength, health and thought.

George Fitch.

The efficient man wastes none of these things. He studies while shaving, learns to chin himself while hanging from a street car strap, makes ten figures this week with the same number of motions he used in making nine last week and endorses his salary check over to the butcher in order to save ink.

The efficient woman boils the eggs in the coffee, installs a cost accounting system in the house which calculates the overhead charges on a graphophone needle and trains the baby to cry only when it can act as an alarm clock.

Efficiency has worked wonders in this country. It has enabled men to work twice as hard without knowing it and look upon a sneeze with regret as something which is wasted energy. It has filled the land with educated and talented cows and alfalfa fields which grow so fast that the farmer has to put up a string to tell where he has mowed. Even the lovers are efficient nowadays. Most of them join motion-picture companies where they can draw a salary for spooning.

Efficiency has gotten into the churches. The minister who cannot show a five-mile daily pedometer reading while making calls is not covering the field; while the school teacher who can't save enough on $55 a month to spend her vacation acquiring two new sciences for additional work is below the normal of efficiency and can expect to receive the jingling insignia of the order of the tin can.

We are so efficient nowadays that the man who gets tired of it all and blows his highly organized brains out, usually tries to plan the deed so that in case he misses he will kill a rat.

Efficiency is a fine thing, but until we are allowed to kill the inefficient, they are going to look at the efficient with more or less dislike and claim at least standing room on the earth in words which burn like concentrated lye. Efficiency is getting to be about as fatal to the man who isn't built that way as a dose of rough on rats.

BRAVES TAKE FIRST GAME IN NEW PARK

BIGGEST CROWD THAT EVER SAW GAME FILLS FIELD.

Boston Gains an Early Lead on the Cardinals by Timely Batting With the Assistance of One Pass—Cubs Win From Brooklyn.

Boston, Aug. 18.—The biggest crowd that ever saw a baseball game filled Braves' field, the greatest baseball park in the country, to overflowing at its opening today. The Bostonians took advantage of the occasion to raise the blue and gold pennant, won in the world series with the Philadelphia Athletics last year, and defeated St. Louis, 3 to 1.

According to official estimates there were 32,000 paid admissions. The seating capacity of the stands is 43,000 and thousands stood throughout the game. Other thousands were turned away. The game itself was an interesting one, in which Boston gained an early lead by timely batting with the assistance of one pass. Radolph pitched well until the ninth inning when the visitors made three hits but scored only once, notwithstanding an error by Compton. The score:

A Dollar is a Dollar, Unless YOU Make it Eighty Cents

And the only way you can make a dollar worth only eighty cents is to trade on credit and pay 20 per cent more than the fellow who pays cash and SAVES the 20 per cent.

Come and get twenty-five or a hundred of OUR dollars. Every one of them will take you to the cash stores and buy you a HUNDRED cents worth—and you'll find them worth at least 20 cents more than the CREDIT DOLLARS you have been using.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

A Pioneer Girl

By Ensley Moore.

Member of Illinois State Historical Society.

"Tell me the tales that to me were so dear,
Long, long ago, long, long ago;
Sing me the songs I delighted to hear,
Long, long ago, long ago."

Long, long ago they came, with their queer French ways and language, and their old world ideas, to this strange new land, with its many rough, careless pioneers so lacking in culture and the forms of polite society.

It was natural that they should settle near Kaskaskia, with its kindred people and the "color" of things they had known in the far away islands of the Spanish Main.

There, in the sight of "the Great River," near the territorial capital of Illinois, they made their home, and there the baby girl was born; last of the seven West Indian children and the two baby Americans.

She breathed the fresh untrammelled spirit of the new world, and the perfume-laden air of early Illinois.

The child responded to the idolizing love of her mother—over young for all her bearing of ten children—and she caught the strong, indomitable determination of the woman who had gone through seasons of massacre and tropical storms and mixed race entanglements and wild queer views of life and religion. For the little girl's mother had dwelt in the island before the insurrection, and the historian says, "it is remembered of her that she was a very strict Papist, and that she nursed a little negro boy through an attack of yellow fever, which her daughter took from him."

Years after, in this "Sangamo country," the little girl hung, spellbound, on her own mother's story of how "at the time of the insurrection the excited blacks had placed their family in deadly peril, and the front of their house was guarded and they were forbidden to stir out on pain of instant massacre, which had been the fate of neighbors on both sides. But the father of the little negro remembered the kindness of the little girl's grandmother. He traded in a small vessel between the islands and sent his son by night, to guide them to his best living concealed where it could be reached from the rear of their dwelling. The white people crept on hands and knees, and got out at the back of the garden through a broken paling, and favored by the darkness, reached in a safety waiting for them." And then they came to Philadelphia, and after wards the little girl's father and mother found their way to the Illinois country and made a new home.

Perhaps it was the blood of the French mother that made the little girl's own mother so dauntless, and gave her that strong, unbending self-reliance which enabled her to carry her children through the succeeding years after her husband had been called to his rest.

Sure it is that the brave young woman came to little Jacksonville for the educational advantages it could afford to her growing family.

Here, with the rest of the early pioneers, she found a log cabin, "on the State road," and there the little girl grew and expanded with the breadth and air of the prairies.
It is not hard to guess that the little girl wandered out among the beautiful wild flowers that carpeted the soil of Illinois, or that she sometimes trudged up the hill where "the College" gave view of the entrancing landscape and hope of learning to its students.

It was hers, no doubt, to join her older sisters in their studies in the Academy founded by Mrs. Ellis's undying love of truth and Christian learning.

And it was hers to watch the strong, manly students of the College, and to attract their bows and smiles, as she, the little girl, had won the loving admiration of her girl friends at the Academy.

"Tell me the tales of the long,
long ago!"

How can one tell of all that goes through the mind or animates the heart of a beautiful maiden? How can one measure the longings which her pure eyes speak out to those who gaze into them?

The prairie town grew, the students went forth, class by class, from College and Academy. Hardin went to his death in Mexico, and Dick Yates won the hearts of men by his gallant bearing and winsome face.

Many, many years after, riding up from the region where Kaskaskia had looked across the river to the little girl's birthplace, the old man whom they called Governor threw back his head in characteristic pose, closed his eyes, and brought out to his younger fellow traveler the story of the little girl whom the Governor had known as a beautiful young woman.

Yes, the years had brought knowledge and style and growth and development to her. And her name was one to conjure with in the college crowded town.

The heroes from Mexico had brought back the remains of their Colonel, the sorrows of those who had lost their loved ones in the land of the Montezumas has been assuaged by Time's loving touch, the trees had grown to shade the Academy grounds, and frame houses made homes for the newer settlers.

But the little girl had not time to stay longer to brighten the great black eyes of her mother. The angels were calling her and she heard the call.

Did she also hear the coming roar of the War that should darken our land, and the desolation that should come to many an Illinois home?

Who can tell?
But one day the twin girls went in from their neighboring home, and the fond, brave, French mother let them gaze upon the face and form of her beautiful dead.

And soon after they took the mortal part of the little girl out to the East cemetery and laid her to rest.

There, near the monument to the Colonel who "gloriously fell" on the field of battle, a simple marble slab bears the one word,
"EUNICE."

ARRESTED FOR RIDING ON SIDEWALKS.

Constable Pike of South Jacksonville arrested two boys Wednesday for riding on the walks in South Jacksonville. The authorities of the village are determined to stop this practice and will prosecute anyone who is violating the law.

A COOL SUMMER KITCHEN

While the weather remains as it is now we are not going to spend much time
about the cook stove if we can avoid it, nor do we want our help to. Very hot food does not tempt us, nor are we demanding a great variety.

What food we do have, though, we want a little different in appearance and more attractive than at any other season of the year.

Now one can do a great amount of cooking with very little heat or exertion if proper care is given to the range and intelligent use is made of the fuel, be it wood, coal or gas.

Draughts should be closed as soon as fires begin to blaze and the articles to be cooked should be starter at once. The greatest heat is often lost by thoughtless cooks before the cooking begins.

When coals look whitish they are beginning to cool and this happens quickly when there is a great circulation of air.

At this season, fortunately, all foods cook quickly; forty minutes may be required for potatoes and less time than this is needed for the majority of other vegetables, so that an hour is ample time for the actual cooking of food if everything is ready before the fire is lighted.

Stoves need cleaning in summer quite as much as in winter and if the range does not bake on the bottom, or on top, it is trying to tell you it is clogged with ashes or soot.
In every coal stove there is an opening through which the accumulation can be removed when the stove is cold.

The wood ashes are excellent in the vegetable garden and the soot will improve the color of your next June's roses if you put it around the roots of the bushes now. So the task of cleaning the range really leads to loveliness in the end, as with so many of our unpleasant duties.

Now a word to the gas user. No article cooked on top of a gas range requires full gas flow or excessive heat after it has started cooking.
Keep the gas turned low and the food will be better cooked.

Questions and Answers.
"Will you kindly publish a table showing how to ascertain the weight of baking materials by measurement?"

Reply—You will find a Boston measuring glass and a measuring spoon helpful in securing the right proportions, as they are divided and have their divisions marked. They are to be purchased at house-furnishing stores.

Weights and Measures Table
4 gills equal one pint.
2 pints equal one quart.
4 quarts equal one gallon.
One pint of liquid weighs one pound.

16 ounces equals one pound.
1 heaped tablespoon of sugar equals one ounce.

1 heaped tablespoon of butter equals two ounces.
4 cups of flour equal one quart or one pound.

8 tablespoons of dry material equals one cupful.
16 tablespoons of liquid material equals one cupful.

"When I make gravies or sauces
the butter or the fat always separates from the mixture; can this be prevented?"—Beginner.

Reply—The butter can be added in tiny bits to sauces and creamy mixtures and no grease line will form, but in making gravies blend the flour into the butter and cook until smooth before adding any liquid. There should only be as much fat as you have of flour; you have been using too much.

The harmony among the persons interested in the management was indeed pleasant to witness.

The public spirit manifested by the residents of Franklin and vicinity is remarkable and shows good results.

A convenient way for those who don't want to give a whole day to the home coming is to go down on the C. B. & Q. train and then go across to Yeomans on the C. & A.
Murrayville cutoff and get back at about 9 o'clock in the evening.

Franklin has various other organizations of which it is proud. The Commercial club is the one which has managed the home coming.

The program for today will be as follows:

9:30—Band concert.

10:00—Welcome address, O. E.

Tand, 45 Dubec's comedy circus.

11:00—Auto parade.

11:30—Drawing parade winners.

4:00—Band concert.

1:30—Montrose and Hamilton.

1:45—Miss Frances Olinger, solo-

SUBSTANTIAL GIFT RECEIVED FOR OILING HARDIN AVENUE

The movement to grade and oil the Hardin avenue road received quite a substantial contribution Wednesday from the committee, which in 1908 purchased the ground for the extension of the street from Michigan avenue to the Vandallia road.

In the year mentioned a meeting was held at the Franklin school and a committee composed of George Sybrant, M. L. Hildreth and John W. Merrigan was named to solicit subscriptions and purchase the ground for the opening of the street. Mr. Merrigan was named treasurer of the committee and after the purchase was made there was a balance of $65.50, which has been in the bank since.

Wednesday Mr. Merrigan called the committee together and proposed that the balance be given to the fund for improving the highway and as the other members of the committee agreed a check for the amount was turned over to Mayor H. J. Rodgers.

SOCIAL EVENTS

U. C. T. Boosters.
The members of the United Commercial Travelers' Boosters met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. George Haigh on Hardin avenue. A business session was held and plans were talked over relative to the picnic dinner which will be served at Nichols park Sept. 6. Refreshments were served following a social hour.

Faithful Followers Meet.
The Faithful Followers Sunday school class of Central Christian church enjoyed a gathering together in the assembly rooms in the basement of the church Tuesday evening where they had the pleasure of the presence of their teacher, Miss Adelaide McCarty. The evening was devoted to music which was followed by a picnic lunch.

Social Gathering at Orleans Wednesday.
Mrs. Clyde Cox, of Orleans, was hostess to a company of friends at her home Wednesday evening. About thirty were present and the occasion was greatly enjoyed by all. During the evening a guessing contest was held and prizes were won by Clifford Davis and Mrs. Charles Cox. Delicious refreshments were served. Among those from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Ryan, of St. Louis.

In Honor of Birthday.
Mrs. A. C. Reid and daughter Florence spent Tuesday with Mrs. Beatrice Leach near Woodson, the occasion being Mrs. Leach's birthday. A very enjoyable time was spent and a splendid dinner served. Mrs. Leach received a telegram from the Van Arsdale family in Pueblo, Colorado with words, "We are all thinking of you today. All join in love and best wishes for many more happy birthdays."

Children Spend Pleasant Afternoon.
Laura and Velma Carpenter entertained a number of their little friends from 2:30 till 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at their home on Mound avenue. At the close of a season of games, the guests partook of excellent refreshments. Present at the gathering were Louise Jenkinson, Olive Bray, Pauline Bray, Nadine Stafford, Irene Stubblefield, Margaret Stubblefield, Joyce Landers, David Landers, Katherine Arison, Katherine Mary Kamm, Helen Kamm, Helen Harney, Lois Harney, Rhoda Rammelkamp and Charles Henry Rammelkamp, Jr., Carl Darrel Ehlert, Helen Ehlert, Mildred Robinson, Hermine Robinson, Mary Helen McCarty, Louise McCarty, Eunice Jacobs, Mardelle Killam, Abbie Lee Young, Laura Young.

Miss Alice Carter Celebrates Birthday.
Miss Alice Carter, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. T. P. Carter, of 475 Lincoln avenue, gave a party Wednesday afternoon in honor of her 12th birthday anniversary. The afternoon was passed in playing games on the lawn and some dainty refreshments were served. Prizes in the contests were won by Florence Masters and Edith Putnam. Mary Brown and Louise Gates assisted in entertaining and Catherine and Marion Carter assisted in serving. Miss Carter was kindly remembered by several appreciative gifts and wished many more happy birthdays by her departing friends.

Among those present were: Mary Strawn, Marjorie McMurphy, Dorothy Farrell, Ruth Reynolds, Ruth Bradley, Mary Jeanette Capps, Anna Dewey Doan, Catherine Wilson, Catherine Gates, Ella Eugenia Woodman, Florence Leonard Masters, Augusta Webster, Edith Putnam and Alice Carter; Robert Halsted, Ollie Parker, Maurice Obermeyer, John Robert Robertson, Hugh Wilson and John Camp.

Strawn's Crossing Woman's Club.

The regular meeting of the Strawn's Crossing Woman's club was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Davies, with a good attendance of members. Miss Katharine Olmsted gave a most interesting and instructive address on public health work. She told of the federation of women's clubs of Morgan county, which would include all church organizations. She related about the open air school in Jacksonville and told of the convention she attended at Battle Creek, Mich. She said that an investigation had been made of the drinking water at the various public schools of the county and an analysis showed that in many instances it was not as pure as it should be. It was hard to find, she said, a happy combination where lighting and heating facilities were evenly balanced in any one school building.

After the address refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by her daughter, Miss Euella and Misses Irene Phillips and Nellie Green.

Entertains at Children's Party.
Young friends of Mary Elizabeth and Robert Elvin Groves, who are here from Chicago on a visit, were pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Amelia Nebold of 243 Prospect street. A number of clever games were played and in the peanut hunt, the prize went to Joseph Mallen, Jr. Dainty refreshments were served. Besides the guests of honor there were present: Caroline Doane, John Mallen, Joseph Mallen, Margaret Faye Hopper, Emma Cobb and William Clancy.

CHICKEN DINNER.
Served every day at the Pacific hotel for fifty cents. Come and bring your friends.

PROBATE COURT.
Estate of Frances M. McGinnis. Petition for private sale of personal property. Petition heard and allowed.

PROPERTY OWNERS OF EAST STATE STREET FAVOR TARVIA PAVING

Action Taken at Meeting Held Last Night—Public Hearing Will Be Held in Council Chambers This Morning.

A number of property owners met in Ehnie Brothers' building Wednesday evening to talk over the matter of the paving of East State street. The public hearing on that street is to be held in the council chamber this morning. A year ago or more when the board of local improvements called a hearing for paving East State street a majority of the property owners appeared and asked that the material be asphalt. Since that time many of them have changed their opinions and some of the most ardent advocates of asphalt are now in favor of tarvia.

At the meeting Wednesday evening Dr. W. P. Duncan acted as chairman and W. S. Ehnie as secretary. The matter was discussed in a general way and each one present was asked to express his views on the material for the topping and foundation and curbing. Those present were: C. F. Ehnie, John Hodgson, Dr. W. P. Duncan, Dr. J. W. Haigrove, Frank McKenna, John O'Donnell, J. E. Stice, Louis Piepenbring, Otto Spieth, J. F. Kitter, W. S. Ehnie, C. C. Berryman although not a property owner, was also present.

In discussing the material John Hodgson, John O'Donnell, Louis Piepenbring and C. F. and W. S. Ehnie favored the use of tarvia. Frank McKenna favored a brick pavement but said he preferred tarvia to asphalt.

J. F. Kitter favored a good brick pavement as he thought that was the best that could be put down. Dr. J. W. Haigrove also favored either brick or creosote block. Otto Spieth said that he did not want to express an opinion until he had seen some tarvia put down. He thought they should wait until South Main street was paved so that they could have an opportunity to see what tarvia looked like. Dr. W. P. Duncan favored tarvia though he said the government regard a pavement built of small brick as them out durable.

Most of the property owners present favored using the present pavement as a foundation for the new pavement and also to use all of the old curbing that was in good condition. Dr. Haigrove and Mr. Kitter did not believe that it would be practical to put down a pavement on top of the old foundation. They thought that a good foundation was the main thing in any pavement and that they should not experiment.

When the meeting adjourned it was the sense of those present that all who could should attend the meeting this morning.

NOTICE.
